

THE PENDEEN PRESS

7th November 2024

Headlines this Week

Welcome back to our whole school family!

An enormous welcome back to each and every one of you 🙌 We hope you all had an exciting half term. We've loved hearing about what you've been up to over the past week ❤️ We are also hugely proud of the superb attitude to learning that has been displayed across the school this week. Well done, Team Pendeen and keep up the fab work ✨

Attendance and Absence

As a Trust, we are acutely aware of the importance of children being in school, on time every day. Please note, as of Tuesday 5th November 2024, if your Leave of Absence (LOA) is not granted as an exceptional circumstance, you could be eligible for a Penalty Notice.

Celebration Assembly

Well done to Piper, Arlo, Lilly-Grace and Phoebe for winning the mascots last term! We can't wait to see who wins on Friday this week and the adventures that the mascots go on!

This week in the Office!

Sharon (Mrs Hopkins) has been working her socks off this week! Shaz - as we all affectionately know her - is a true shining star within our lovely school. She greets everyone with the warmest of smiles and knows exactly how to act in all situations. Our children love spending time with her and talking to her throughout her hectic work day, which really makes her smile. We are all extremely grateful to have Mrs Hopkins as she truly makes the school complete, helping to keep the wheels of learning turning!

Happy 70th Birthday to Barbie!
